Chip Strange is the Chief Executive Officer of Ookla. Since joining the company in 2018, he has played a pivotal role in shaping Ookla's strategy, growth, and innovation agenda while working closely with customers, partners, and teams across the business.

In his previous leadership roles at Ookla, which included Chief Strategy Officer and Vice President of Strategic Initiatives, Chip led global corporate development, strategic partnerships, government and industry affairs, and the Ookla for Good program.

Chip has more than 25 years of telecom industry experience working with network intelligence and communications service providers. Prior to joining Ookla, he supported the successful divestiture of Mosaik Solutions to Ookla, where he was responsible for corporate strategy, marketing, product management, and software engineering functions. Before his time at Mosaik, Chip spent thirteen years at Alltel Wireless and Verizon in an array of strategic and operational capacities.

He has completed an executive education program at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management and holds a Bachelor of Science in English Literature from Troy University.
